

DOUBLE HEADER KICK OFF EVENT - March 5th, 6:00 pm
Bird's Nest: Herzog & DeMeuron in China

"For those of you who aren't yet obsessed with Jacques Herzog and Pierre de Meuron the Swiss architects behind London's Tate Modern, the Barcelona Forum, the de Young Memorial Museum in San Francisco, Allianz Arena in Munich, and 40 Bond Street in NYC—we think the stadium they've built in Beijing for this summer's Olympic Games might push you over the edge."
 —Good Magazine

Shiguru Ban: An Architect for Emergencies

"The film shows the initiatives of an architect in action who proposes another way of thinking about housing, an architecture that responds to the new needs of contemporary society."
 —2004 Architecture and Urbanism Film Festival Catalog

SECOND EVENT - March 19th, 6:00 pm
Malls R Us

"A fascinating, sumptuously filmed investigation into the history, design, function and future of the shopping mall in modern life. With its global sweep, vintage footage, and searching assessment of the mixed blessings that malls are in our lives, Malls R Us is instant classic—the documentary you want to see on this subject."
 — Alex Shoumatoff, editor, Vanity Fair Magazine.

FINAL EVENT - March 26th, 6:00 pm
Waste = Food

"An exciting introduction to the work of American architect and designer William McDonough and German ecological chemist Michael Braungart, who may well be starting a new industrial revolution."
 —The Flaming Grasshopper
